

You Must Believe and Not Doubt – James 1:1-8

God is a _____ and _____ giver, even,
and perhaps especially, to the _____.

The English terms _____ and _____
are derived from the same Greek word, _____.

This indicates that what is at issue is not only the
_____ of the trial, but also the
_____ of the one undergoing the trial.

When James speaks to joy in suffering he is speaking of a
_____ that is
wrought out of the belief that God is yet in control.

James' use of the words _____ and
_____ further demonstrate that he is not talking about a feeling, but a mindset or way of thinking.

Doubt is _____. It _____ us from God.

You Must Believe and Not Doubt – James 1:1-8

God is a _____ and _____ giver, even,
and perhaps especially, to the _____.

The English terms _____ and _____
are derived from the same Greek word, _____.

This indicates that what is at issue is not only the
_____ of the trial, but also the
_____ of the one undergoing the trial.

When James speaks to joy in suffering he is speaking of a
_____ that is
wrought out of the belief that God is yet in control.

James' use of the words _____ and
_____ further demonstrate that he is not talking about a feeling, but a mindset or way of thinking.

Doubt is _____. It _____ us
from God.